

The 25 orders of birds in Australia

Blue are ones seen in the Cambooya polygon, pink is possible but no records, and red is unlikely

Information kindly supplied by Scot McPhie, Birds on Farms Project

Coordinator Lockyer-Toowoomba QLD

1	Casuariiformes	Emu and Cassowaries
2	Galliformes	Megapodes, quail
3	Anseriformes	Ducks, geese and swans
4	Podicipediformes	Grebes
5	Columbiformes	Doves and pigeons
6	Otidiformes	Bustards
7	Cuculiformes	Cuckoos
8	Gruiformes	Cranes, rails, coots
9	Charadriiformes	Lapwings, stilts, button-quail and many more
10	Caprimulgiformes	Nightjars
11	Aegotheliformes	Owlet-nightjars
12	Podargiformes	Frogmouths
13	Apodiformes	Swifts
14	Phaethontiformes	Tropic birds
15	Sphenisciformes	Penguins
16	Procellariiformes	Albatrosses and petrels
17	Pelecaniformes	Herons, egrets, pelicans, bitterns, ibises, spoonbills
18	Ciconiiformes	Storks
19	Suliformes	Darters, cormorants and more
20	Strigiformes	Owls
21	Accipitriformes	Eagles, kites, osprey
22	Coraciiformes	Kingfishers, rollers, bee-eaters
23	Falconiformes	Falcons
24	Psittaciformes	Parrots and cockatoos
25	Passeriformes	Perching birds/song birds